Ethnic cleansing is the systematic and systemic forced removal of ethnic, racial and/or religious groups from a given territory by a more powerful ethnic group, often with the intent of making it ethnically homogeneous. The forces which may be applied may be various forms of forced migration, intimidation, as well as genocide and genocidal rape. Ethnic cleansing is usually accompanied by efforts to remove physical and cultural evidence of the targeted group in the territory ...

The West, the EU and even the United States, don't even live up to the lessons learned from the ethnic cleansing, genocide, and war crimes in the former Yugoslavia in the 1990s, with which they dealt first hand. So it is not surprising that another similar ethnic cleansing campaign over there from a much earlier period would pique their interest.
