PYRETOWN. by: John Belluso. directed by: Diane Rodriguez. Closed "This love affair between a handsome 23-year-old paraplegic and a 43-year-old mother of three on welfare by the late John Belluso turns out to be not about his handicap or her age but about what many romances founder on: economics. This is not to say that Belluso didn't write with ...

Christopher Thornton - Biography - IMDb

John Belluso's Pyretown has few subtleties. An emotional blast on the red tape, unfairness, and inadequacies of the managed health care system in the United States, the two-act play begins as a burgeoning love story. Louise is a frazzled mother with single-parent responsibilities who is battling to adequately care for her children.

Talkin' Broadway Regional Theatre News & Reviews - "Pyretown"

Pyretown is a flawed play and the sadness is that Belluso didn't live to see this unearthly young performer, with a heart and talent as big as his undefeatable spirit, breath such extraordinary life into this role, which I'm sure would have sent the playwright right back to the drawing board to perfect Act Two, sadly nothing as compelling as the first.
